

▲ Inbuilt Integrated

◀ Vertical “VPU” Style

i-Rack Rack power distribution manager

Features:

Network Manager – a fully featured network interface providing rack power management via the Web. Allows users to access, configure and manage individual outlets from remote locations to save time and minimize network power related downtime.

Individual outlet control – allows users to:-

- Turn outlets on and off
- Cycle power to equipment
- Reboot locked-up equipment
- Prevent unauthorized use of outlets.

Power delays – allow users to determine the order in which equipment is powered up or down and, following a power disturbance will allow the RPDU to restore to the original configuration. Utilizing the power delay feature will avoid in-rush current, which can cause overloads.

Monitoring – the current draw at the rack level is key to avoiding downtime resulting from overloaded circuits. i-Rack web based interface provides a global aggregate current draw, which can be viewed remotely.

Management Tools

i-Rack is an HTML based network interface providing management tools for the power management.

Menu inclusions:-

Outlet Control – Displays and controls individual or global power outlets

Status Display – Displays individual outlet status and global current consumption

Outlet Configuration – Enables outlet I.D, outlet name and start up delay sequence

i-Rack Configuration

- Enables device settings
- IP address
- Date & Time changes
- Hardware
- Reset
- Factory defaults

User Management

- Controls access to the user and administrator password

Configuration Log

- Records individual outlet configuration changes
- Reboots by time/date stamp and description

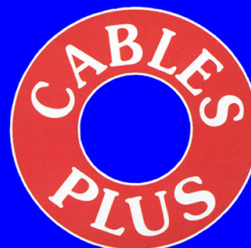

Event Log

- Records individual outlet activity by time/date stamp and description

Dimensions

- Integrated into the rack structure to maximise rack space
- Also available in “bolt on”/“add on” style.
- Selectable configurations of up to 20 outlets per side

Authorised Hallam Rack Distributor

VICTORIA -

Ph: 03 9329 6866

Fx: 03 9329 6052

Email: cpsales@cablesplus.com.au

TASMANIA -

Ph: 03 6431 8660

Fx: 03 6431 4430

Email: cablesplustas@bigpond.com

For further information on our extensive range of optional extras please call: